

Court of Record
Fax/Tel: +39 06 45 22 0228
UK Fax: +44 1234 81 8001
E-mail: gicor@courtofrecord.org.uk
Web: www.courtofrecord.org.uk
Post: Postfach 73, CH 6314, Switzerland.

FAX:

To :		From :	Joseph Ray Sundarsson
FAX :	10 Destination numbers	FAX :	+390645220228
Date :	10-04-2016	Phone :	+39 06 45 22 0228
		Pages :	1 (including this page)

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth [II]
HRH Prince Philip, The Lord High Admiral HRH Princess Anne, The Princess Royal Sophie, Countess of Wessex, Lord High Steward
HRH Prince Edward, Earl of Wessex Court of St. James via Rt. Hon. David Cameron, MP, Prime Minister

cc: Rt. Hon. George Osborne, MP, Chancellor
... The Lords of the Treasury

cc: His Holiness Pope Francis
... Swiss Guard

cc: His Excellency George W. Bush
... Duke of America in Her Majesty's Commonwealth
cc: His Excellency Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin
... Duke of Russia in Her Majesty's Commonwealth
cc: Queen Letizia of Spain, Spanish Court cc: Queen Rania of Jordan, Jordanian Court cc: Allies for the Rule of God's Law

09 April 2016 .. 10 April 2016, early hours

May it please Your Majesty,

Contemplating, as did Perseus, "on winged sandals", we have adored YHVH as the Trident of Wisdom and asked YHVH in Her Active Form as Our Immaculate Mother Mary for a situation report for Your Majesty.

The bees are buzzing in the Upas Trees
The priests and bankers are in a funk and Alligators are going yum-yum in the trenches

The hangman's got a rope and the Chancellor, a lump in his throat and the Gamesters are Placing bets in Triskelion

The Lord Mayor is eating curry
The Foreign Ministry is in a hurry and 'MI6' thinks the Ladies have had ... too much sherry

The SWIFT system is stuck
The Free Ports are in a muck with artistic hubs and the Fabians believe this brings luck

The war elephants are snoozing after way too much dancing and the Pentagon Generals, it must be said must nearly be lancing

We asked Mahakali, what is that we must do for there are those who do do and male lions who roar but who are lazy

She has led us down the well To That which we can't tell but She in Her generosity has left some pointers ...

We suggest that Your Majesty and the Ladies of the Court of St. James contemplate the story of Gauri Ma, which we had never read before, which Mahakali led us to, "on winged sandals", without a database search or bother:

> IT WAS THE YEAR 1882 in the city of Calcutta, In one room of the palatial house of > Balaram Bose of Bosepara Lane was a sannyasini of uncommon appearance, a woman who > had renounced the world in search of God. She was absorbed in worship of her Ishta > Devata, or chosen deity, Damodar Shila, in the form of a shaligram, a round stone > symbol of Vishnu. She sang softly with intense devotion, her gentle face radiant and > blissful as she bathed the deity that had been placed upon a copper tray. The bath > was completed. Hands trembling with emotion, she lovingly dried the shaligram with a > cloth. She was about to place it on the asana, or seat, when suddenly, she saw two > tender, luminous human feet. Thinking her senses had deceived her, she rubbed her > eyes and looked intently. But those same two feet were on the throne of Damodar. No > other part of the body was visible – just the Lord's two lotus feet.

> Many times she had experienced the playfulness of the Lord, who, though hidden from > our sight, ever sports with His devotees. But that day's experience was peculiar. She > felt astounded. A shiver went through her entire body and her hair stood on end. The > shaligram slipped from her quivering hands. She became distressed: in all these > years, she had never dropped the shaligram. Lifting up the image, she touched it to > her head and heart, bowing to it again and again with intense devotion. Again, she > bathed it. This completed, she began to chant and to offer a tulsi leaf, but lo! > again, those very feet appeared! The tulsi leaf intended for her shaligram fell > instead on those luminous feet. Again, she offered the leaf to her deity, and once > again, it fell on those two feet. Once, twice, thrice! The sannyasini, Gauri Ma, > collapsed in unconsciousness.

> All the members of Balaram Bose's family were especially devoted to Gauri Ma, their > honoured guest. It was unusually late that day, but she had not completed her worship > and come out of her room. When the family could not even hear her voice, one of the > ladies peeped through the half-opened door. There to her astonishment she saw Gauri > Ma lying on the floor, tears streaming down her face. When Balaram's wife heard this, > she rushed to the spot. But Gauri Ma did not respond to their repeated > entreaties. They immediately sent for Balaram. As soon as he saw her, he realised > this was no common illness, but a deep spiritual experience – samadhi, absorption In > the Spirit.

> Only after a few hours did Gauri Ma regain partial consciousness. If anybody > addressed her, she looked blankly, unable to reply. Again and again she looked at her > breast, seemingly trying to grasp at something. She felt as if someone had tied a > string to her heart and was gently tugging it. But she could not get hold of that > string. She wished only to retire to a lonely spot where she could weep undisturbed.

> The rest of the day and night passed in this state. An unknown urge made her very > restless. That night she heard a voice. A person of blissful appearance, feigning > anger, addressed her in these loving words: "Will you not come, unless I drag you?"

> Gauri Ma became distracted. "Who are you?" she asked. "Your voice seems familiar."

> The person of blissful countenance replied, "Oh, yes! Yes! But only if you come > closer, will you be able to recognise me. Come. Come soon."
> http://www.theylivedwithgod.info/gaurima/101_unless_he_draggs_me.htm

So this then, is our wish, as it is Her wish, so may it be Your Majesty's wish.

To put this wish in Admiralty terms, it can be seen that to "free Princess Andromeda", we must wish that Your Majesty with Prince Philip and Princess Anne, must visit our humble abode. It is in this context that we commend that the Court of St. James read Chapter 6 on 'The Administration Block' in Parkinson's Law, for this is relevant to the sprouting of new seeds in the Garden of the LORD, and the 'importance' of circular folders at the plush offices of 'Swiss Bankers'.

We suggest that the suitable date for such a trip is Your Majesty's 'actual' birthday, 21st of April, any force or power to the contrary notwithstanding.

So we asked Mahakali how to explain this "notwithstanding" nature of Admiralty orders, to which She led us to:

> Sun Tzu Wu was a native of the Ch'i State. His ART OF WAR brought him to the notice > of Ho Lu, King of Wu. Ho Lu said to him: "I have carefully perused your 13 > chapters. May I submit your theory of managing soldiers to a slight test?" Sun Tzu > replied: "You may." Ho Lu asked: "May the test be applied to women?" The answer was > again in the affirmative, so arrangements were made to bring 180 ladies out of the > Palace.

> Sun Tzu divided them into two companies, and placed one of the King's favourite > concubines at the head of each. He then bade them all take spears in their hands, and > addressed them thus: "I presume you know the difference between front and back, right > hand and left hand?" The girls replied: Yes. Sun Tzu went on: "When I say "Eyes > front," you must look straight ahead. When I say "Left turn," you must face towards > your left hand. When I say "Right turn," you must face towards your right hand. When > I say "About turn," you must face right round towards your back." Again the girls > assented.

> The words of command having been thus explained, he set up the halberds and > battle-axes in order to begin the drill. Then, to the sound of drums, he gave the > order "Right turn." But the girls only burst out laughing.

> Sun Tzu said: "If words of command are not clear and distinct, if orders are not > thoroughly understood, then the general is to blame." So he started drilling them > again, and this time gave the order "Left turn," whereupon the girls once more burst > into fits of laughter. Sun Tzu: "If words of command are not clear and distinct, if > orders are not thoroughly understood, the general is to blame. But if his orders ARE > clear, and the soldiers nevertheless disobey, then it is the fault of their > officers."

> So saying, he ordered the leaders of the two companies to be beheaded. Now the king > of Wu was watching the scene from the top of a raised pavilion; and when he saw that > his favourite concubines were about to be executed, he was greatly alarmed and > hurriedly sent down the following message: "We are now quite satisfied as to our > general's ability to handle troops. If We are bereft of these two concubines, our > meat and drink will lose their savour. It is our wish that they shall not be > beheaded." Sun Tzu replied: "Having once received His Majesty's commission to be the > general of his forces, there are certain commands of His Majesty which, acting in > that capacity, I am unable to accept." Accordingly, he had the two leaders beheaded, > and straightway installed the pair next in order as leaders in their place. When this > had been done, the drum was sounded for the drill once more; and the girls went > through all the evolutions, turning to the right or to the left, marching ahead or > wheeling back, kneeling or standing, with perfect accuracy and precision, not > venturing to utter a sound.

> Then Sun Tzu sent a messenger to the King saying: "Your soldiers, Sire, are now > properly drilled and disciplined, and ready for your majesty's inspection. They can > be put to any use that their sovereign may desire; bid them go through fire and > water, and they will not disobey." But the King replied: "Let our general cease > drilling and return to camp. As for us, We have no wish to come down and inspect the > troops." Thereupon Sun Tzu said: "The King is only fond of words, and cannot > translate them into deeds." > http://www.pattonhq.com/militaryworks/sun_tzu.html

We have already seen that Your Majesty is not afraid of translating words into deeds. The story has more depth in it than at the first reading. This can be seen with regards to His Holiness Pope Francis' priests and the Cunts of Malta.

Pope Francis expresses his wishes and the "girls only burst out laughing". Dante foresaw this need for a Good Spiritual Monarch and thereby earned the wrath of the then Roman Priests. From that time to the present, there have been Machiavellian wolves masquerading as priests in the 'Catholic' church.

The hoards of Hades

The Chancellor has a wish to save his neck. So must many idiots in the Chancery Division. Idle minds are a devil's workshop. If they wish to save their necks at this late hour, then let them get busy making sensible suggestions. We have done some of their homework below:

Actual logical thinking, like "where did the proceeds of fraud go" is not very difficult when placed before Mahakali. She has led us straight to the answer, without a search, to page 9, where Banco Santander buys 'The Sovereign' bank, which was also based in Panama:

<http://www.federalreserve.gov/pubs/bulletin/2006/legalq206.pdf>

The idiots selling drugs on behalf of the Cunts of Malta were washing their cash; The Sovereign Bank was fleecing Americans and Englishmen 'offshore'; the proceeds were used to buy "art and treasure" ... so where is this treasure, piled up for the last days? The answer returns, in 'free ports and zones' - there is one in Panama.

- > "The Bouvier model consists of "artistic Hubs" regrouping into Freeports
- > facilities for rent and specific services dedicated to art collectors, museums and
- > companies. In 2010, he inaugurated the first Singaporean Freeport, a 30 000 m2
- > futuristic safe close to the airport, which he funded along with other Swiss
- > investors and helped design. In 2014, following the increasing trend of Freeport
- > storage, he inaugurated a brand new 22,000 m2 storage facility in Luxembourg,
- > directly on the Luxembourg airport premises. In 2017, a new "Le Freeport" will
- > open its doors in Shanghai, ...
- > ... Yves Bouvier moved to Singapore in 2009 where he currently resides.
- > https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yves_Bouvier#Early_life

So once again, the idiots in plush bank offices move from one side to the other of the East India Company. If the Chancellor and the Lords of the Treasury wish to save their necks, they can work out, in a hurry, what must be done.

His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI has already provided them with the guidelines:

<http://www.courtofrecord.uk/Christmas>

If they choose to 'defect' and scurry like rats with their hidden horde, to where shall they run? The snakes amongst them would eat them for lunch. If they think they are going to start a war, if they look they will find no war hammers.

Creation of the Duke of Palmyra

We create HRH Prince Edward, Earl of Wessex, as Duke of Palmyra in Your Majesty's Commonwealth and Joint Intelligence Chief and Father Confessor, reporting directly to HRH Princess Anne, The Princess Royal, with direct oversight over MI6/SIS, MI5, GCHQ, Five Eyes, New Zealand, IMB, Apple, etc., any intel agency or special military power, by whatever name. It is our wish that he immediately take on this responsibility and "make straight the way" for Your Majesty.

It is our wish that HRH Prince Edward, Duke of Palmyra, with the assistance of the His Excellency George W. Bush, Duke of America in Your Majesty's Commonwealth as General The Decider in charge, and His Excellency Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, Duke of Russia in Your Majesty's Commonwealth, as General in charge of Field Operations, assist HRH Prince Edward with the necessary force required, no obstacles or blackmail withstanding.

It is our wish that HRH Prince Edward seek the blessings and guidance of his father HRH Prince Philip, The Lord High Admiral and ask him what are the questions he should have asked his father and did not in all these years.

Our earlier contemplation for HRH Princess Anne, The Princess Royal, which has already produced visible effect is below:

> 03 April 2016

> Dear Anne,

> In contemplating the will of the Demiurge, known as Brahma to the Indians,
> 'Creator', we were led to investigate if the Sun is making any aspects to major > stars.

> Sun is conjunct Alpheratz in Andromeda, quincunx your natal moon which is conjunct > transiting Jupiter. Here is the legend:

> > Legend: Andromeda, the original "maiden in distress" is daughter of Cepheus, king > > of Ethiopia, and his wife Cassiopeia. Cassiopeia was proud of her daughter's > > beauty and boasted that Andromeda was more beautiful than the Sea Nymphs, the > > Nereids, who were daughters of Poseidon (Neptune). The Nereids complained to > > Poseidon who sent a sea monster (Cetus) to ravage the coast. With his kingdom in > > grave danger, Cepheus consulted the oracle of Ammon in Libya for advice. He > > learned the only way to save his kingdom was to sacrifice his daughter, > > Andromeda, to the sea monster. Andromeda is chained to a rock and left to the > > mercy of the monster. The hero, Perseus, riding through the air on winged > > sandals, arrives at the scene and they fall in love. Perseus had a quick > > consultation with Cepheus and Cassiopeia, it is agreed that if he rescues their > > daughter he could marry her. The sea monster (Cetus) arrives and Perseus kills it > > by turning it to stone with the Medusa's Head (Algol). Perseus breaks the chains > > that bound Andromeda to the rock and frees her. The wedding follows.
> > <http://constellationsofwords.com/stars/Alpheratz.html>

> You fit the story perfectly, being chained to the 'rock', Petrus; there is a threat > from the 'sea monster' via New Zealand, etc.

> It is such a perfect match that the unfolding plot must have been framed by a Roman > Priest, Jesuit or MI6 spook, who looked it up. There is actually a smell of the

- > evidence out there that they did.
- > Cetus, the sea monster plot also is connected to the islands which were the last to
- > get 'independence' or remain dominions, Falklands being the best known example,
- > Aden is perhaps the next best known, and perhaps Mauritius, from where Cinderella
- > with the Golden Shoes appeared.
- > Gold lust, torture, secret energy devices, ritual abuse, genetic 'monster'
- > research, Osiris Tree Men, Wookies, etc., Cetus as Cthulhu, etc., are the 'dots'
- > that connect the extreme research wing of MI6 / GCHQ with the Jesuit Priests of
- > London, the "kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived
- > deliciously ... by thy sorceries were all nations deceived."
- > This is their Babylon project, for which they got Tony Blair to invade Iraq. This
- > is the work of Saturnalia, head quartered in New Zealand, with I.B.M., the
- > E.U. being the visible 'tower of babel', the false centre of Babylon to confuse
- > idiots who cannot think. Don't they think that the LORD knows their Flag of
- > Clematis?
- > If that was not enough distraction, there is always Turkey and Saudi Arabia, an
- > irrational fear of Allah, YHVH by another name, Our Father in picture language.
- > Saturn is opposite Algol in the sky. Saturn is The Law - austere. c.f. Luke 19:21
- > "For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man ..." as is Algol, the feared
- > pile of corpses c.f. Exodus 32.

We have contemplated Algol before YHVH, like Perseus "on winged sandals". It is our wish that HRH Princess Anne accompany Your Majesty to our humble abode.

The Microcosm and the Macrocosm

Ms. Nicole Davis of HSBC Chelmsford, undoubtedly at the insistence of her superiors, has made an "error of judgement". A letter dated 17 March 2016 was received by post on 06 April 2016. This letter threatens closure of his corporate accounts by 16 May 2016. Perhaps they do not understand the serious nature of their error.

We have heard, from Switzerland, that 'British' passports are frowned upon, by the bankers who think they have a safe haven there, with a backup in China and/or Singapore. They evidently cannot read as we have been sure to copy them with all correspondence.

Our man in Switzerland has reported heavy chopper flights, possibly designed to intimidate him.

It is our wish that 'bankers' and 'priests' learn the nature of orders in Admiralty. It does not take a genius to figure out who-is-who in the corporate banking zoo. It is our wish that HRH Prince Edward, with the resources we have placed at his disposal, ensure service of process to such.

It is our wish that all 'Chancery' Registrars and Judges, and 'bankers' at 'Director' / CEO / V.P. level and above, and their 'priests' are presented with an Exodus 32 tie or equivalent ecclesiastic garment with '32' written as III II in green stripes like Morse Code on the said stripes, the stripes in green bend sinister over black.

We name the following living men for prompt service of process:

- 1) Douglas Jardine Flint, CBE, Group Chairman of HSBC Holdings.
- 2) Stuart Thomson Gulliver, Chief Executive of HSBC.
- 3) Stephen Keith Green, Baron Green of Hurstpierpoint, ...former Group Chairman of HSBC Holdings plc.
- 4) All Chancery Division Registrars and Judges.

We suggest the equivalent for Credit Suisse and Switzerland.

We recall here the wisdom of Cicero once again:

- > Wise men are instructed by reason;
- > Men of less understanding, by experience;
- > The most ignorant, by necessity;
- > The beasts by nature.
- > Letters to Atticus, Marcus Tullius Cicero

Clock in the sky says Moon conjunct Algol. Jupiter is opposite Achernar, one of Dante's Tre Facelle, "the End of the River". Sun conjunct Uranus. Mars conjunct Antares. The old era endeth, yielding place to new.

We send our love to YHVH for Your Majesty!

Yours faithfully,
Joseph Ray Sundarsson
Special Master